for young musicians

CONCERT GUIDE

SPRING 2017
JANUARY - MARCH

"I am very proud to be a Patron of The Purcell School, which provides such excellent opportunities for young musicians to achieve their goals."

Vladimir Ashkenazy,
Patron of The Purcell School

THE PURCELL SCHOOL

The Purcell School based in Bushey, Hertfordshire, is Britain's oldest specialist school for talented young musicians. It is a co-educational boarding and day school for ages 9-18, and celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2012. The School holds the UNESCO Mozart Gold Medal in recognition of its unique contribution to music, education and international culture. The School's Patron, HRH The Prince of Wales, accepted the award at a special ceremony at the UNESCO headquarters in Paris.

An education at The Purcell School is available to everyone. Entry is by musical audition only. The School exists to provide young musicians of exceptional promise and talent with the best possible teaching and environment in which to fulfil their potential, irrespective of their financial background. The School is funded by the Government's Music and Dance Scheme and the School's own scholarships and bursaries fund.

The curriculum allows pupils to study a full range of subjects with a special emphasis on Music. Being on the edge of London, the School takes advantage of all that the city has to offer, but enjoys a semi-rural environment. The proximity to London gives access to the eminent international musicians who comprise the instrumental teaching faculty.

The School has exceptional facilities; state-of-the-art classrooms, a professional recording studio, superb practice rooms and a recital hall with exceptional acoustics.

Pupils are given outstanding opportunities for performances. We hold lunchtime concerts every weekday, and all pupils perform at these. Chamber music and orchestral concerts take place regularly, and every year performances are given at the Southbank Centre and Wigmore Hall. Visiting conductors have included Sir Simon Rattle, Paul Daniel and John Rutter. In recent years masterclasses have been given by Vladimir Ashkenazy, Zakhar Bron, Andras Schiff, Natalia Gutman and Craig Ogden among others.

All pupils are encouraged to share their love and passion for music with the wider community, be it participating in one of our many evening performances, free lunchtime concerts at the School, or in our UK and overseas outreach programmes.

Most Purcell pupils go on to music college and some take up places at Oxbridge or other universities. We are very proud of our former students who have enjoyed national or international success. Just a few of our distinguished alumni include Oliver Knussen CBE; Catrin Finch; BBC Young Musician of the Year winners, Nicholas Daniel, Lara Melda, and Martin James Bartlett.
