

R emember the soldiers

E verlasting war

M ore and more sacrifice

E nd of the world

M en in graves

B ravery on the battlefield

E nd of war finally

R emember the soldiers

Elara

R emembering those who sacrificed their lives,

E nduring sight too horrid to recall,

M illions died for our country,

E veryday hoping, even during the most terrible times,

M any were lost, fathers, brothers, friends, fiancés,

B ut that faint glimmer of trust still flickered

E verlasting in our minds, ever today,

R emain the souls of those brave dead soldiers.

Kutay

R emember our soldiers.

E very soldier battled for their lives.

M ore soldiers die in the war.

E very sacrifice means every poppy.

M illions of soldiers died.

B ttles were harsh and horrible.

E very soldier was brave.

R emember our soldiers.

R emember all of them.

E very soul who fort for us.

M elancholy it must have been to be called up.

E ating barely, rashing in the trenches.

M achine guns blasting, making ears go deaf.

B ravery, to go out onto the battlefields.

E arning the peace for the world with sacrifice.

R emember them.

llabla

twinkl

www.twinkl.co.uk

R emember those who fought in the war

E very soldier who died

M emories of lost ones still remain

E normous bombs here and there

M any sacrifices made

B odies spead over the battle fields

E mbers still remain

R emember those who fought in the war